Re: Peter Nygård et al. v. Louis Bacon, 19 Civ. 1559 (LGS)
Consent Request to Adjourn Pre-trial Conference to June 6, 2019

Dear Judge Schofield:

We represent Defendant Louis Bacon in this matter. We write to request that the Court adjourn the initial pre-trial conference that was recently scheduled for May 16, 2019. We have conferred with opposing counsel, who consent to this request and advise that they are available June 4-7, 2019. We understand that the Court often schedules such conferences on Thursdays, and the parties would welcome a June 6 date if that is convenient for the Court.

For background, this conference was originally scheduled for April 18, and the Court then continued it once so that Plaintiffs' response to Defendant's letter requesting leave to move to dismiss would be on file before the conference, and continued it to its current date because the Court had a scheduling conflict. Dkt. Nos. 8, 20, & 22. Defendant seeks this continuance because the May 16 date conflicts with pre-existing travel plans for Defendant's counsel. This is Defendant's first request for adjournment of the initial pre-trial conference, and Plaintiffs consent to this request.

We thank the Court for its attention to this matter.
